Isometric Embeddings of Polyhedra

Barry Minemyer

Binghamton University

Abstract. In 1954–1956 John Nash solved the isometric embedding problem for Riemannian Manifolds. Some of his results were extended to manifolds endowed with an indefinite metric tensor by Greene and Gromov/Rokhlin independently in 1970. In this talk we will discuss combinatorial analogues of these results to polyhedra.